BOURBON COUNTY CLUBS

Bourbon county is quite to the front these days in the matter of women's clubs and all of them are active.

At Millersburg, Friday afternoon, the Twentieth Century Club gave a musicale, in which Miss Mary Dan Harbeson and brother, Capt. Robert Harbeson took the chief parts. The same afternoon at North Middletown the Woman's Club presented a literary program the features of which were papers by Mrs. John S. Talbott, Mrs. W. K. Hagan and Miss Mildred Collins.

At Paris, Saturday afternoon the Bourbon County Woman's Club presented Miss Grace Wilnot, of New York, in a lecture on "Artistic Housefurnishing." Miss Wilnot appealed to the women to establish in their home furnishings of American atmosphere rather than that of French, Italian or Oriental. Miss Wilnot's tour of Kentucky clubs is being managed by Mrs. Allie Smith Dickson, of North Middletown, Chairman of Art in the State Federation. The General Federation is likewise sponsor for the Wilnot, and her itinerary in Kentucky is being made at the instance of the National Art Committee.

The Business Woman's Club had a parliamentary drill last night at 7:30 in the Y. M. C. A.

To-morrow afternoon the Department of Literature of the County Clubs will present the following program: "What Every Woman Knows" (Barrie)—Miss Mary Fithian Hatcher; "The Skin Game," (Galsworthy)—Mrs. J. Walter Payne.

The program for the regular meeting Saturday of the Millersburg Twentieth Century Club is as follows: Roll Call—Quotations from "Les Miserables," (Victor Hugo); "Victor Hugo, the Man, Preacher, and the Artist"—Mrs. J. Elgin Poole; "Fantine," (Cosette)—Mrs. Wallace Shannon; Reading—Mrs. Allie Miller; Music—Mrs. Current Hostess—Mrs. Ball.

INJURED RETURN HOME

With the exception of J. B. Kelly, traveling salesman, who is confined with a broken hip, all the parties who were injured in the automobile accident near Paris last week, have been able to leave the Massie Memorial Hospital, and return to their homes.

Mrs. John Poindexter and daughter, Miss Katherine Poindexter, have returned to Cynthiana, Mo. and Mrs. Duke Smith and Ben Houston have gone to their homes near Paris. Physicians set Kelly's fractured thigh Friday, and he is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

Two thousand ex-service men who, although living, are officially listed as killed, are forming a "Dead Man's Club."

FORMER BOURBONITE CLARK COUNTY CANDIDATE

Henry V. Thompson, of Winchester, brother of Representative James H. Thompson, A. S. Thompson, I. D. Thompson and Mrs. Swift Champ, of Paris, has announced his candidacy for Representative from Clark county in the next Legislature. The Winchester Daily Sun says:

"H. V. Thompson in this issue of the Sun announces as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Representative of Clark county in the Kentucky Legislature."

"Mr. Thompson is one of the most popular men in the county. He has been engaged in actively organizing the farmers of the county in an effort to secure the best prices for tobacco, and has always the interest of the people of the county at heart."

"He is a man of whole-hearted personality, and would be a credit to this county if he is honored by his party with this office."

CHANGE OF DATE FOR SUPERINTENDENTS' MEETING

The dates of the meeting of county superintendents have been changed from January 27 and 28 to January 24 and 25, the former dates conflicting with county examinations for eighth grade students in the rural schools.

The meeting will be held in the House of Representatives in Frankfort, and the address of welcome will be made by Governor Edwin P. Morrow. Dr. Frank L. McVey, president of the University of Kentucky, will speak on "How We Can Help the University and How the University Can Help Us." "The K. E. A." will be the subject of James H. Risley's talk.

Superintendent of Public Instruction George Colvin has prepared a tentative program including the following subjects for discussion: Powers and duties of new county boards; duties and tenure of office of local trustee under the new law; qualification of county superintendents; the operation of the attendance officers; advisability of one date for closing all schools in each county.

A vocational department in each county high school; emergency schools for colored children; scholarship and certification for accrediting high schools; relation of county superintendent to graded schools; how best to get few schools and better schools; correspondence courses in teacher-training centers; teacher-training in high schools, physical, educational and Parent-Teacher Association.

SALES RESUMED YESTERDAY ON LOCAL TOBACCO MARKET

With a large attendance of growers and others interested in the tobacco industry the sales on the Paris market, interrupted by the sensational happenings on the opening day, Jan. 4, were resumed yesterday. Buyers for all the big manufacturing houses were present. The sales began at ten o'clock yesterday morning at the Paris House No. 1 of the Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse, and were continued in the afternoon at the New Independent Tobacco Warehouse Co.'s House No. 1.

There was passed under the hammer on the floors of the Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse Co. 166,830 pounds of tobacco. Of this 151,855 was sold for $21,199.55, average of $13.80; 14,975 pounds of tobacco was passed, not receiving a bid. Figuring the passed tobacco at one cent per pound the floor average on the 166,830 pounds was $12.80. In addition to the above there was considerable neglected tobacco.

There was, as to be expected, a large amount of very inferior tobacco on the market, some of which was sold at a very low price, and some of which brought a fair price. Two baskets of about 900 pounds, raised by a Paris grower, for which he had been offered fifty cents per pound in the field last summer, was rejected by the buyers. Other consignments went for low prices. There was some good tobacco on the market, but the majority of the offerings was of a low grade. Growers had been advised to leave their low grade tobacco in the barns and to bring to the market only the best. Some of the growers who sold their crops in the sale were in the banks later on discharging some part of their indebtedness.

There was a feeling of optimism among the growers, as much as to say: "Well, the jinx has us, but we will make the very best we can of the situation." And they seemed to be doing it. There is still a large amount of tobacco in the barns which has not yet been stripped, and this will be held for later sales. Heavily-loaded wagons passed through Main street yesterday afternoon, destined for future sales. The sales will be continued daily until the 1920 crop is disposed of, or so much as the owners desire to sell at the present time.

In several instances crops of tobacco that had been withdrawn from the opening sale at eleven and twelve cents a pound, were placed on sale yesterday, and brought only eight to nine cents per pound. Other crops that had been rejected at the opening sale were again sold yesterday and brought fairly good prices. These served to show the uncertainty of the market.

NOTES FROM THE BASKET BALL GAMES.

At the Y. M. C. A., Friday night the team from St. Joseph's College, in Bardonia, defeated the local Knights of Columbus five in a hotly-contested game by a score of 18 to 14. Both teams played a good game, but the Bardonia boys had a shade the best of the struggle. For Paris, Kenney played a star game, while the other members of the team gave an excellent account of themselves. The Paris line-up was the same as in previous games. Other games are booked for the near future.

The local Y. M. C. A. team will play Kentucky Wesleyan College team, of Winchester, in the local Y. gym to-night. The game will be called promptly at 7:30 p. m. A double-header will be staged, as the Girls' Triangle Club five will play a team from the Business Women's Club. Both games promise some excellent sport.

The team of the Western High School, colored, of Paris, defeated a team composed of teachers from the Russell High School, colored, of Lexington, last week by a score of 8 to 7. Paris put up an excellent game in every particular. A return game is scheduled to be played at Lexington soon.

EASTERN STAR SCHOOL

The annual school of instruction of the Twenty-third District, Order of the Eastern Star, was held Saturday at the Masonic Temple, in Lexington, with Lexington Chapter No. 110 as host.

Mrs. Emma J. Croninger, of Covington, Grand Matron of the order, was present. The Chapters from Nicholasville, Paris, Shawhan, Millersburg and Lawrenceburg sent representatives. At the evening session seven candidates were initiated and the degrees were exemplified by the Lexington Chapter. Luncheon was served to the visitors at the Masonic Temple at noon and at six o'clock, there was a buffet supper in honor of the visitors and the officers of the Lexington Chapter.

PARIS PEOPLE IN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY PLAY

"The Strollers," the dramatic organization of Kentucky University, is arranging to present the play, "The Admirable Crichton," from the celebrated novel by J. M. Barrie in March. The play will be produced in several Central Kentucky towns. The characters in the play will be assigned this week. Two young Paris students will be in the cast. Miss Louise Connell and her brother, Raymond Connell. Both possess dramatic talent of a high order. A screen version of the play was shown in Paris recently under the title of "Male and Female."

IMPRESSIVE HONORS PAID MEM-ORY OF BOURBON HERO

With impressive military honors, in the presence of one of the largest crowds ever gathered in the Paris Cemetery, the body of Bishop Batterton, world-war hero, and a popular son of Bourbon, was lowered into its last resting place Sunday afternoon. Lowering leaden clouds overhead and a snow-y blanket furnished Nature's shroud for the fallen hero, while, with bowed heads and saddened hearts the assembled multitude paid silent tribute. To many of them recurred the beautiful lines penned by Theodore O'Hara:

"Sons of the Dark and Bloody ground
Ye must not slumber there
Where stranger tongues and steps
Resound
Along the heedless air;
Your own proud State's heroic soil
Shall be your fitter grave;
She claims from War his richest
Spoil,
The ashes of her brave."

The body arrived in Paris from New York at 3:15 Saturday afternoon, and, escorted by a detail from Bourbon Post, American Legion, was taken to the home of his brother, County Judge George Batterton, on Cypress street.

The funeral was held at the Christian church Sunday afternoon, in the presence of an audience that filled the structure from door to door, many being unable to gain admittance. The casket, draped with a large American flag, was preceded into the church by a guard of honor composed of eight marines, all from Cynthiana, and former members of young Batterton's command. The funeral procession passed through a double file of about one hundred and fifty former service men, representing all branches of the service, mainly members of Bourbon Post, American Legion, under charge of Captain William Collins, commander of the Post. As the funeral party entered the church the choir sang, "Nearer, My God, To Thee." Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the church, paid a feeling and eloquent tribute to the memory of Bishop Batterton.

"Men do well," he said, "to worship their heroes, for these are they who have lifted the gates of prisons from their hinges, broken the swords of tyrants, and led the pilgrim hosts into the promised land of learning and liberty. When I think of Bishop Batterton, with his undaunted courage, his beautiful spirit of self-sacrifice, and that Christian patriotism that led him to give his life for his country, I am overwhelmed with the grandeur of the subject. He was the true type of the American soldier, whose knightly and chivalry and courage are known to the world around. In action he was sublime, verifying the promise he made to his mother when leaving him, that he would never do anything that would bring dishonor to his flag or his country."

At the cemetery a vast crowd gathered for the first military funeral conducted there since the close of the Civil War, the more remarkable from the fact that Bishop Batterton was one of the first to respond to the call to arms, and the first Bourbon county boy to give up his life in the world-war. The choir sang "The Christian's Good Night," following which Rev. Theodore S. Smylie, pastor of the Presbyterian church, and chaplain of Bourbon Post, offered a touching prayer. The guard of honor fired three volleys over the open grave. Stationed at the head of the grave a bugler blew "taps," signifying the end of all things earthly for the soldier, and as the plaintive notes faded into the distance, a second bugler, stationed on a distant knoll, echoed the call, as the body was lowered into the grave. Rev. J. T. Sharrard pronounced the benediction. The pallbearers were the following former service men: Hiram Adair, Charles Spears, Ben Clark Wilson, John M. Stuart, Ben Houston, Alvin Thompson, Scott Woodford and Harry Jones. At the conclusion of the ceremonies the assemblage silently departed, leaving behind them as a benediction the thought,

"Rest on, embalmed and sainted dead,
Dear as the blood ye gave;
No impious footsteps here shall tread
The herbage of your grave.
Nor shall your glory be forgot
While Fame her record keeps
Or Honor points the hallowed spot
Where Valor proudly sleeps."

WINCHESTER FIRE DOES $24,000 DAMAGE

Fire that resulted in a loss of over $23,000 destroyed the Bluegrass Garage, on North Main street, in Winchester, late Thursday afternoon. The origin of the fire is not known. Six automobiles, one of which was a Cadillac touring car belonging to I. Gay Strode, of Lexington, were destroyed. The loss on the building is estimated at $10,000. S. Gott and H. C. McKim, owners of the garage, stated that the loss on the cars would amount to more than $12,000, while paints and supplies valued at $700 and tools valued at $500 were lost.

The insurance on the building and stock is said to be small.

LOOKING THE TOBACCO SITUATION IN THE FACE

The decision to reopen the loose leaf tobacco warehouses in Paris for a resumption of interrupted sales, will, we believe, meet with the approval of nearly all the growers in Bourbon county. The threatened suspension until May had resulted in a general paralysis of business, and had given the farmer a gloomier outlook than he would have had ordinarily.

It is not a theory which is confronting the tobacco grower this year. As a class he is in debt, and his banker is naturally anxious over the prospect. Tobacco will not be a profitable crop at an average of six, seven or eight cents a pound, but the impression is that it will be better for the grower to take his loss, get the best he can for his product, and with the cash relieve the credit stringency which exists.

We are not in the confidence of the leaders of the movement which resulted in the meeting held in Lexington last week. It may be they have plans and resources which are under cover. It was suggested that sales be held off until May, that the crop be cut out in 1921, that the greater part of the crop be stored, and that negotiable warehouse receipts be issued for it. The announced plan did not deal with the crux of the situation, which is that the growers must have money now. Credit has been strained to carry them thus far. Additional extensions make additional strain. To issue negotiable warehouse receipts appears a poor plan, for the reason that warehouse receipts will not be negotiable unless someone can be found with money to lend on them. The last statement of Bourbon county banks shows that practically all of them have out large loans. Nothing further could be expected of them.

Europe will not buy the cheaper grades at present. Tobacco simply can not be sold there. No appreciable sum could be borrowed on such tobacco even if the money were available. The tobacco companies have not reduced the prices of their manufactured products. Their dividends are large, and they should be willing to pay a fair price for the raw material. But if there has been overproduction they cannot under the law of supply and demand be forced to take a surplus at a high price.

The farmer will have to take a loss this year. Other lines have done it. It is hard for a good ship to meet with bad weather, but the disaster will not be so complete if something is saved from the wreck. This crop must be sold. The time for the farmer to figure for the benefit of farmer is before his work is done, and not after it is finished. Let the growers' organizations get a plan for the 1921 crop that will bring a good return on the time, money and labor invested.

DOWN THEY GO.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

The Board of Council met in regular session in the Council Chamber in the City Hall, Thursday night, with Mayor E. B. January presiding. Only a small amount of business was transacted beyond the routine order.

Louis Margolen, who has been acting as substitute fireman in place of Frank Speakes, resigned, was given the place permanently. The Fire Committee was authorized to purchase five hundred feet of new hose for the fire department.

The meeting developed a surprise, when an ordinance, prepared under the direction of the City Attorney, providing for the election of Chief of Police was read and adopted by a unanimous vote. The ordinance, which is published in this issue of THE NEWS, makes the office of Chief of Police an appointive one. The appointment will be made by the incoming Council on January 1, 1922. The adoption of the ordinance was a complete surprise to the different candidates who will now have to abandon their campaign for the office.

THOS. F. BRANNON FINED $1,000

A fine of $1,000 was agreed to Friday in United States district court, at Lexington, in the case of T. F. Brannon, formerly of Paris, proprietor of a cafe at Limestone and Water streets, who was under indictment on charges of possessing and selling intoxicating liquors and with assaulting an officer. The latter charge was consolidated with the possession and selling charge. Brannon's place was raided on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 4, and Federal prohibition agents found twenty-four full quarts of whisky and one partially filled quart bottle.

When the officers went to the third floor of the building occupied by Brannon and attempted to force open a door with a hatchet, Brannon was said to have snatched the hatchet from the hands of one of the officers.

Attorney Harry Miller, who represented Brannon, said the defendant was willing to pay a fine of $1,000 on the selling and possession charge. This offer was accepted and the other indictment was consolidated with it.

PARIS PHYSICIAN NEW HEAD MEDICAL SOCIETY

Dr. J. A. Orr, of Paris, was elected president of the Kentucky Midland Medical Society for the coming year at the one-hundredth quarterly session of that organization held in the ballroom at the Lafayette Hotel. Other officers chosen were: Dr. Julian Estill, Lexington, vice-president, and Dr. L. C. Redmon, Lexington, secretary-treasurer. The next quarterly meeting will be held in Frankfort in April.

Two addresses featured the meeting. Dr. Chas. F. Voigt, of Midway, discussed "Cardiac Stimulation," and Dr. W. J. Young, of Louisville, spoke on the subject, "Radium and Its Application to Disease." The latter lecture was illustrated by lantern slides. A general discussion followed each talk.

Dr. W. E. Risque, of Midway, president of the society, presided, and Dr. Elmer Eses, of Lexington, was secretary.

The medical fraternity of Bourbon county was represented at the meeting by Drs. Jas. A. Orr and J. M. Stern, of Paris.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY PROGRAM FOR KENTUCKY IS ENLARGED

Enlargement of the program for State missions, evangelism and pastoral support was authorized by the Executive Committee of the Baptist State Board of Missions at a called meeting of the board at headquarters in Louisville.

More than $100,000 has been appropriated already for denominational work in the State during the year, which will be spent on missionary work in the mountains and in other sections of the State, evangelism and as supplementary to pastor's salaries in the weaker churches.

The amount appropriated does not include money appropriated for church building, which is a part of the enlarged program of work in Kentucky during 1921.

Other appropriations will have to be made by the committee from time to time during the year, which probably will bring the total for missionary effort, evangelism and pastoral support to approximately $200,000 before the end of the year.

The committee named W. S. Farmer, prominent layman, of Frankfort, chairman of the layman's movement in Kentucky, with instructions to arrange for a big layman's mass meeting in Louisville during the next few months.

Mozart began composing at the age of 4 years, earlier than anybody else on record.

TARR—DOTY

—One of the prettiest weddings seen here in a long time took place Saturday at 3:00 p. m., at the home of R. L. Tarr, when his daughter, Miss Esther Tarr, became the wife of James Doty. This notable event has been looked forward to for some time, as the wedding involved two of our most prominent young people. More than a hundred guests were invited. Quite a number, however, were prevented from being present on account of the inclement weather, while a few did not get here on account of distance.

The color scheme was green and white, and was thoroughly carried out in all details. The spacious living room in the Tarr home was profusely decorated with Southern smilax and white carnations, while the adjoining room was decorated with Southern smilax and red carnations. In the window where the bridal party stood the curtains were heavily draped with Southern smilax and the home was softly illuminated with white wax tapers. Miss Helen Hawkins, of the M. C., accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Pruitt, on the piano, sang, "Oh, Promise Me," after the guests had assembled. At the appointed time the bridal party entered the spacious living room in the following order, to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, by Miss Elizabeth Pruitt: First came the ribbon bearers, Misses Martha Purdy, of Millersburg, and Elizabeth Mock, of Ashland. They were followed by two little ring bearers, Misses Mary Ellen Saunders and Laura Vimont Clarke, carrying separate rings. Then came the maid of honor, Miss Katherine Tarr, sister of the bride-elect, attired in white organdie, the wedding gown of her grandmother McFarland. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses. She was followed by the bride, Miss Esther Tarr, attired in her mother's wedding gown of white silk, with train and veil, the veil being held with a wreath of pearls, and carrying a shower bouquet of bride's roses. The groom, James Doty, on the arm of his best man, William Layson, entered from another door, all forming a beautiful group in the window, where they were met by Rev. W. W.

A $500 STEER STAKE

(By W. E. Stilwell)

If the State Fair of different States would advertise they would give a $500 steer stake every year, and if the county fairs would give a $200 stake, all divided into several sums, it would be a drawing card to the cattle breeders and there would be a royal boom to the cattle interests. The little narrow, light-bodied steer would be replaced with the broad backed steer with quality. There would be a greater profit and a fascination that would bring back the days of the 80's when they exhibited the great show steers Schooler and Nonesuch, which won $3,000 in gold and several cups. They were exhibited by the late Mr. W. H. Renick, of Kentucky, who made the Bluegrass State famous for fine show steers.

What a steer is worth depends upon his breeding and the man that has charge of him. A scrub is worth five cents a pound, and a champion show steer weighing 1,100 pounds sold for over $2 a pound and the champion steer of 1920, weighing 1,360 pounds, sold for $1.75 a pound. The young farmer should not be contented to grow plain cattle and select his seed corn and wheat from the crib and bin, as in his grandfather's day. He should have a vision of greater things and dream of a great show, of beautiful cattle, wheat and corn that has greater size and every ear looks alike and contains more and straighter rows. Then he will begin to see life and the world differently and begin to build up and beautify the home and farm, and the grass will seem greener and the songs of the birds sweeter than ever before. He will visit the live stock shows, come home with a greater knowledge and start a greater herd, then enter the show ring and win the honors there. This gives a fascination that often leads to fame and fortune. Many times the winning of one blue ribbon is the beginning of a noted herd that draws trade from other States and nations.

Then the thought comes, why can't the Department of Agriculture put on the screen at the county sites, the State Fair, Nashville Show, American Royal and the International, champions, and show the young farmer the finished products of the live stock, orchard and field industry? Then he will have a vision of a greater and more beautiful world to live in. He feeds the rich and poor, protects our feet, turns the wheels of our nation, bleaches white our fine sugar strained through his ground up bones, gives us buttons, beautiful hair pins to adorn the head, his hair is used to beautify our walls, fine robes, soap, glue, some brands of fertilizer are obtained from the steer, he returns fertility to the soil, gives to his owner much pleasure and a sum of money for his care and feed. He gives employment to many thousands of people. He goes from the feeder to the packer. Armour and Company employ 62,121 people; pay out $224,868,547 for cattle and calves; $28,549,025 for sheep; $282,461,183 for hogs. Their sixteen packing plants cover 373 acres; 1,350 motor trucks, 5,417 refrigerators and tank cars are used to supply food to eat, clothes wear, furnishings for the home, articles that adorn, preparations that heal, products that make for health, comfort, efficiency and company. Extremely few are the fields of production that are complete without the use of one or several articles of animal origin. Thus does this industry contribute to commerce, science and art.

MAN WHO SOLD COLT MASTER OF CEREMONIES

George A. Bain, Lexington auctioneer, who several years ago sold Man 'o War as a yearling to Samuel Riddle at the annual thoroughbred sale at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., will be master of ceremonies at the home-coming celebration to be accorded the horse when he returns to Lexington this week. The Board of Commerce committee named to work out the details of the celebration to be held in honor of Man 'o War will be composed of the following: Geo. A. Bain, H. M. Hubbard, Chas. R. Thompson, B. J. Treacy, Prof. J. J. Hooper, H. P. Headley, Mayor T. C. Bradley, T. B. Cromwell, W. E. Caskey, V. K. Dodge and J. G. Cramer.

Morton, of the Presbyterian church, the officiating minister. The double ring ceremony was used, which was beautiful and impressive. At the close of the ceremony Miss Pruitt rendered the Mendelssohn wedding march, while congratulations were being spoken. After this individual fees in the shape of roses, and cakes were served. Souvenirs of white carnations were given to all guests. This is the most prominent wedding of the season in social circles. Miss Tarr is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Tarr, her father being one of our most prominent and successful farmers. She was a student of the M. C. almost to the time of her marriage, and has a large circle of friends in this and other States. Mr. Doty is a son of Mrs. John T. Purdy, his father having died when he was a child. His mother united in marriage a few years ago to Mr. Purdy, who is also a prominent farmer. The young man for several years was a student of the M. I. This happy young couple were the recipients of many handsome and valuable presents. Drum's Place in Music.

The drum is a relic of ancient ages. Music in its crudest form is fundamentally rhythm—later to develop into harmony. The drum, lacking pitch, lacking true musical expression, nevertheless essentially registers rhythm. It represents music in its infancy as devised by primitive peoples.

Lime Kills Worms Attacking Plants. When little flies appear on the surface soil in which house plants grow, it is an indication of worms. A cup of fresh lime mixed with ten quarts of water makes a good solution to sprinkle over the soil. Two or three applications are generally enough.

"EUROPEAN RELIEF DAY" AT THE MOVIES.

L. J. Dittmar, who has been appointed by Herbert Hoover as chairman of Kentucky organizations of motion picture interests in a country-wide movement to acquaint the American public with the question of European relief, announced that Wednesday, January 26, has been designated as "Moving Picture Day," at which time talks will be given at all the moving picture houses. He also stated that there would be special morning matinees for children Saturday, January 29, the receipts from which would be given to this cause.

Alfred Brandeis, State chairman of the fund, said that the total contributions in Kentucky amounted to $50,000. "The American relief administration reported that 243,700 food drafts for Central Europe have been sold, totaling $66,098,196.43," Mr. Brandeis stated.

He said that the administration maintains five warehouses and forty-six branches in Europe where these drafts may be exchanged for food.

A Henderson man who killed a farmer is sentenced to prison for only ten years by a jury which evidently is not alive to the gravity of the growing scarcity of farmers.

This has been a great season for winter sports, but when winter sports are in full swing the average housekeeper is dividing time between shoveling snow out of the way, or in calculating how he can best results.

One thing the Paris Commercial Club should insist upon is the numbering of every business house and residence in Paris. The work has never been completed, and several hundred new homes have been erected in recent years. Let's have the job done thoroughly!

The poker game in which dry agents were sitting when the Chicago thieves stole $3,000,000 worth of whisky, is the sort of game no Kentucky gentleman, as dramatists see the type, would have wanted to miss save for the pleasure of participating in the freewater haul.

A Kentucky judge could not decide the question as to which side of the bed a married man should lie on. A wife sued her husband for divorce, charging him with brutality, because he slept on her side of the bed. Any married man could have told him that the man's side of the bed is always whichever side his wife does not care to occupy.

Just about time the candidates for Chief of Police had gotten their campaign fairly under way and had successfully weathered the "card" stage along comes the City Council and upsets their dope by adopting an ordinance providing for election by the new Council. Verily, the way of the candidate is beset with difficulties, and he knows not one minute what the next will bring forth.

MAYOR JANUARY ISSUES PROCLAMATION

Paris, Bourbon County, Ky., January 12, 1921.

In accord with the need of the times and the example of our State's Chief Executive, Hon. Edwin P. Morrow, and being in hearty agreement with the purposes of the National Thrift Week Program,

I, E. B. January, Mayor, hereby set apart the week of January 17-24 to be observed as Thrift Week and earnestly recommend that our citizens set themselves to the special study and observance of the elements of Thrift as outlined by our Thrift Week Committee and that those in position of leadership, ministers and educators, especially address their efforts in instruction in these matters Economic, which are so vital to the welfare and happiness of our entire social, educational, religious and physical life; both at home and throughout the whole of our glorious land.

Faithfully and Sincerely yours, E. B. JANUARY, Mayor City of Paris.

MAYOR SAYS TEACHERS AND NURSES WRONG

Visiting nurses, teachers and probation officers are all booh—let the mothers do their own nursing. Do not bother them.

This is the substance of Mayor John F. Hylan's comment in New York on the appeal of a Miss Donaldson, representing the American Red Cross to the board of estimate for approval of an appropriation for the salaries of teachers of home nursing.

"It seems to me," said the Mayor, "that you people are deluding yourselves with the idea that the mothers of to-day don't know anything about bringing up babies. Where I came from anybody who called to instruct a mother to care for her baby would have been promptly put out of the house."

"At the rate we are going, the mothers of New York City must be kept busy answering the doorbell rung by the succession of visiting teachers, visiting nurses, home nursing teachers, probation officers and all sorts of persons who are making it their business to visit the home to tell parents how to bring up their children."

TEACHER SURPLUS REPORTED

Kentucky now has a surplus of school teachers, according to statements of Superintendent of Public Instruction George Colvin made in a review of the school situation in Kentucky. The State was reported to be short 2,250 teachers in 1919, he said. The present surplus is placed at 200.

The increase in the number of teachers available for Kentucky schools is due, according to the Superintendent, to the fact that salaries were increased last year almost 100 per cent. He said that prior to 1920 many teachers were reported to be receiving not more than $35 a month, while county superintendents received as low as $50 a month, making it impossible to obtain qualified men and women for the positions.

More than 1,000 schools were reported to be idle during 1919, he said, while 1,000 were taught only part of the time and 1,000 taught by "emergency" teachers. This, he said, has been corrected.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

The Bourbon County Thrift Week Committee is arranging to promote the observance of the National Thrift Week program in Bourbon county on similar lines as before. Mayor E. B. January has issued a proclamation on the observance of the program. All of the ministers of Bourbon county have been asked to preach on the subject on January 23rd. A county school essay contest will be held.

Basket ball teams are expecting a hot contest Tuesday night when the Y. M. C. A. team meets the Kentucky Wesleyan team from Winchester on the Y floor in Paris. A double-header bill will be staged, with a game between teams from the Triangle club and Women's Mission Circle of the Christian church.

The band is one of the important new and growing organizations at the Y. With only six rehearsals the boys are playing "America" and a number of hymns. Prof. E. O. Kidd, of Lexington, the director, speaks in very high praise of the talent in the organization. The band is now composed of 21 boys. All but five are equipped with their instruments. The list is as follows: Clarinet—Leslie O'Neill, Russell Lenox, Geo. Browner, Wm. Wilson; Cornets—A. F. Sweeney, Leslie Smith, Jas. Collier, Will Moore, Laird Altos—Norbert Friedman, Robt. McCarty, Homer Wilson, Harry Baldwin; Trombones—Thos. Spicer, Blanton Collier; Baritone, Ferdinand Nagle; Saxophone—Wm. Lytle; Tuba—Harmon Taylor, Kemper Kenton; Drums—Homer Stone, Snare, Sol Feld, Snare, Robt. McNamara, Bass.

X-RAY DENTISTRY

The up-to-date dentist now-a-days makes an X-ray picture of every tooth separately, which may need treatment. Nothing is left to chance. If you have a toothache he will place a small photographic plate, say an inch square, inside your mouth back of the troublesome tooth. The X-ray machine is then turned on for a second or so and the plate is removed and developed. It will be found to contain an exact life-size photograph of the tooth, which will show exactly what is going on in side. With this photograph before him the dentist will know exactly what he is doing and is able to get at the trouble without giving you a single unnecessary jab.

PARIS STARS IN LEXINGTON BASKET BALL

Two P. H. S. graduates, Basil Hayden and Robert Lavin, are winning high honors as basketballers on the University of Kentucky team. In the write-up of the recent game at Lexington between the University team and the Cumberland College squad, The Herald says:

"Hayden, if there was a star, was it. He played all over the court and was at the end of nearly every one of the passing combinations, throwing field goals for a total of 18 points, one less than half the total Kentucky score. He made several remarkable shots and missed several more tries when it seemed he had a cinch of it. Hayden showed up easily the best individual player of the night."

"Bobby" Lavin hauled down his usual share of the glory with brilliant guarding and passing. Lavin played a great game and had several chances to make himself the hero of the mixup by shooting goals, but in nearly every instance he found some one else in a little better position than he to make the score."

FORMER PARISIAN IN SHOW BUSINESS

The Richmond Register has the following concerning a former Paris man who married a Paris girl, and of a Winchester boy, popular with Paris people:

"News comes from Flemingsburg that the Legion Minstrels there proved a great success. Gov. Bowen, assisted by Percy Reid, of Richmond, had charge of the minstrel performance and it is said to have been one of the best shows that the Legion boys anywhere have put on under Bowen's management."

"A great feature of the show, of course, was the singing of Mr. Reid, who is almost in a class by himself, few big-time artists anywhere being his equal in stage work. Mr. Reid will go to the South to handle several shows under Bowen's management, and after that to Geneva, New York. His many friends here are much pleased to know that his first show since joining the Bowen organization has gone 'so big,' and they are predicting much success for him in this line."

OWNER LIABLE FOR DAMAGE BY CHICKENS

For the first time in the history of Kentucky, the Court of Appeals, in a recent case of Adams Bros. vs. Clark, declared the chicken law of the State. The court holds in substance that the owner of trespassing chickens is liable for damages done by them, and that it is the duty, under the law, of every owner to take care of his or her chickens and prevent them from trespassing and damaging a neighbor. Among other things in the very interesting opinion delivered in this case, the court said:

"It is the natural propensity of domestic fowls to rove, and doing so to wholly disregard property lines and even fences. This propensity is well known to all owners, and when an owner with this knowledge allows his fowls to run at large to the injury of his neighbors, he is a wrong-doer and is liable for the trespass, even in the absence of a statute or ordinance to that effect."

MAILING OF INCOME TAX FORMS DELAYED

It was expected to begin mailing them yesterday. Treasury officials said, but they would probably not be ready before January 25, leaving forty-three days for filling out and filing.

"TO HELP US ALONG"

If it wasn't so foolish as to be funny we'd actually lose patience with the man who turns in an ad for the paper with the announcement that he is giving it to us "just to help us along." And yet every now and then we run across the fellow who has not learned that advertising is the best protection he can have against failure in business.

If advertising only helped the publishers, then American merchants are the most charitable people on earth, for they maintain thousands of newspapers and magazines and let loose of millions of dollars annually they could keep in their pocket otherwise.

The day when the old question "does it pay to advertise?" was sprung has passed with the stage coach and five-cent sugar. To-day the sensible man asks himself, "does it pay not to advertise in every issue of the paper that goes to the people upon whom I must depend for trade?"

X-RAY DENTISTRY

The up-to-date dentist now-a-days makes an X-ray picture of every tooth separately, which may need treatment. Nothing is left to chance. If you have a toothache he will place a small photographic plate, say an inch square, inside your mouth back of the troublesome tooth. The X-ray machine is then turned on for a second or so and the plate is removed and developed. It will be found to contain an exact life-size photograph of the tooth, which will show exactly what is going on inside. With this photograph before him the dentist will know exactly what he is doing and is able to get at the trouble without giving you a single unnecessary jab.

Danville Man Tells of Wife's Wonderful Recovery Since Taking Tanlac

"Well, sir, I have never in my life seen anything to equal the way Tanlac restored my wife's health after everything else had failed," said R. B. Taylor, of 129 East Stokes St., Danville, Va.

"At the time my wife began taking Tanlac," said Mr. Taylor, "she was almost past going. For three months she had been unable to eat or sleep to do any good and was so weak and nervous she felt miserable all the time. Her muscles ached constantly, she could hardly walk from one room to another and her feet burned like fire. Many a night she got up and sat in a chair because she couldn't sleep. Nothing helped her and she became very low-spirited and I was completely at a loss what to do.

"But the turning point came when I got her a bottle of Tanlac, for she improved right from the start. She has now taken three bottles, is strong and well, has gained several pounds in weight, is in fine spirits and never complains of an ache or a pain. Actually she looks better and says she feels better than ever before in her life. There is nothing too good for us to say about Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Paris at the People's Pharmacy." (adv)

THIS MAN HAS NO "RACE SUICIDE."

Since wide publicity was given to the fact that Reuben Bland, Robertsonville, Beaufort County, S. C., was the proud father of thirty-four children, he and Mrs. Bland have been deluged with letters from persons all over the United States and Canada.

The letters are from both women and men. A man in Ohio wrote:

"I read the story about your large family aloud to my wife. 'There's a man who ought to be given a medal,' I told her. 'There's a man who ought to be hanged,' she retorted. A writer in Oregon sent this:

"Reuben, Reuben, I am thinking. You are quite a nifty man. To your health I am drinking. You have done what few men can." From Navarre, Ohio, Mr. Bland received this:

"I'm the father of eight children and I have an awful time keeping them in food and clothing. I've worried a lot, but since reading about your big family, I realize that I'm a lucky guy."

WE WONDER

We are great believers in the influence of one's surroundings. We have read with the liveliest interest Darwin's studies in protective imitation and other kindred matters and we are well aware how true it is that a man may be known by the company he keeps.

Right now a test of that theory is by way of being tried out here among ourselves. As we write chimes of one church out in our immediate neighborhood are admonishing us of the day and reminding us that, by the tuning of one discordant note, they could be made greatly more endurable. They invite us to throw out the life line. Pretty soon we are going to need it. A church is in course of erection within an alley's breadth of our windows. Will its influence imperceptibly, but irresistibly, pervade us? When it shuts out our light and bathes us in reflected heat will we rise up and call it blessed? We wonder!

SOME GOVERNMENT POSITIONS OPEN. DESPITE REDUCTIONS

Despite the reduction of employees under the Civil Service Commission, the department is still seeking applicants for some positions, it is announced in a statement issued by the Civil Service Commission at Washington.

Before the war employees on the pay roll of the commission numbered 450,000, but during the war the number was doubled. At present reductions in the force have brought the number of employees to 630,000.

The reduction, according to the commission, will continue and may be expected for some time.

Though the force is steadily being reduced the commission declared, however, that it needs applicants for certain branches of work, as some appointments remain unfilled. Examinations will continue and announcement of these will be made at regular intervals.

There are more than 12,000 varieties of orchids, and no man has a complete collection. LICK NOT AT ALL

Some folks don't lick postage stamps because they taste like Hades and others because they have heard that there's germs on 'em. But most people in their haste give them a lick and let it go at that.

The Medical Times put two investigators at work on the subject some months ago and their report is just out. They obtained stamps from fifty different places, mostly business offices. Some were kept exposed on desks, some in boxes in desk drawers, and some were carefully locked in cash registers. No matter, the degree of exposure didn't count. In every case the gum on the backs contained deadly disease germs.

The investigators found the bacilli of typhoid, diphtheria, pneumonia, skin diseases and blood diseases. Not a few, but many on the back of every stamp. In twenty cases the colonies of germs were too numerous to count.

Of course, as the Medical Times points out, if these germs were virulent to everybody, great epidemics would result, so widespread is the practice of licking stamps. Nevertheless, it is probable that many people have been stricken in this way who were physically in a condition to be receptive to the disease bacilli. Few know whether they are in such condition, hence it is just as well to moisten the stamps some other way than with the well-known tongue.

Get rid of Indigestion and Stomach Worries with "Pape's Diapepsin"

"Really does" put weak, disordered stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness due to acid fermentation, that—just that, makes Pape's Diapepsin the largest selling stomach antacid and regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments and turns sour, you belch gas and eructate undigested food or water; head is dizzy and aches; breath foul; tongue coated, remember the moment "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous, and the joy is its harmlessness. A box of Pape's Diapepsin tablets costs so little at drug stores, too.

NICHOLAS COUNTY MAN RECOVERS STOLEN AUTO.

Patrolman Robert Lusk arrested Everett Muse, who lives between Millersburg and Carlisle, on the charge of taking an automobile belonging to William Gaunce, a tenant on the farm of Mrs. Rudolph Davis, of Paris. Muse, it is said, confessed to the charge, and is alleged to have implicated his brother, William Muse, who was later arrested at Flemingsburg. The car was taken one day last week, and driven to Cincinnati, where it is said to have been abandoned. Nicholas county officials will take Muse back to Carlisle for trial.

The Carlisle Mercury says: "The machine belonged to Victor Gaunce, a tenant on the Bell farm owned by Mrs. Rudolph Davis, of Paris. Mr. Gaunce made complaint to the authorities here of the theft of his machine. He went to Cincinnati, Wednesday morning to bring the machine back. The young men accused of stealing the machine had been working in the neighborhood, and when the theft was discovered suspicion pointed to them. They will be returned to this city for trial about the last of the week."

AMONG HOUSEHOLD GOODS

That liquor is a personal possession of great value and importance, ranking with diamonds or other precious jewels, has been officially decreed. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue at Washington has decided that when a person moves his home he may move his liquor. He may take it from one part of the country to another, without let or hindrance and regardless of interstate or other commerce rules, and without other household goods or baggage, if he desires.

Thus one's booze is, by the stroke of an official pen, legally recognized as the most valuable of all one's treasures and penates. The possession by a traveler of a well-lined suitcase will not, therefore, necessarily be occasion for embarrassment and probable prison. His plea that he is but moving his valuables to another domicile will be as good as gold; where one's liquor is, there is one's home, it may be said. And one's home is inviolate—or was before the days of over-zealous dry advocates, who, however good their intentions, may yet make the prohibition law ridiculous by going to extremes.

"Between Devil and Deep Sea."

The phrase "Between the devil and the deep sea" has probably no reference to the ancient fighting between the Picts and the Britons, though undoubtedly it has long been in use in Scotland. SINGLE SAM BEGINS INCOME TAX COLLECTION

Work has begun on the collection of the income tax for the year 1920. Uncle Sam, through the Bureau of Internal Revenue, is addressing to every person in the United States the question, "What was your net income for 1920?" The answer permits of no guesswork. Every single person whose net income for 1920 was $1,000 or more and every married person whose net income was $2,000 or more is required to file a return under oath with the Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which he lives on or before March 15, 1921.

The penalty for failure is a fine of not more than $1,000 and an additional assessment of 25 per cent. of the amount of tax due. For willful refusal to make a return the penalty is a fine of not more than $10,000 or not exceeding one year's imprisonment, or both together with the costs of prosecution. A similar penalty is provided for making a false or fraudulent return, together with an additional assessment of 50 per cent. of the amount of tax evaded.

The income tax applies to women as well as men. Husband and wife must consider the income of both plus that of minor dependent children, and if the total equals or exceeds $2,000 a return must be filed. A minor who has a net income in his own right of $1,000 or more must file a separate return. To be allowed the $2,000 exemption a married person must be living with husband or wife on the last day of the taxable year, December 31, 1920. Divorcees, persons separated by mutual agreement, widows and widowers, unless they are the sole support of others living in the same household, in which case they are allowed the $2,000 exemption granted the head of a family, are entitled only to $1,000 exemption.

The normal tax rate for 1920 is the same as for 1919—4 per cent. on the first $4,000 of net income above the exemption and 8 per cent. on the remaining net income. This applies to every citizen and resident of the United States. In addition to the normal tax a surtax is imposed upon net income in excess of $5,000.

Full instructions for making out returns are contained on the forms, copies of which may be obtained from Collectors of Internal Revenue. Persons whose net income for 1920 was $5,000 or less should use Form 1049A. Those with incomes in excess of $5,000 should use Form 1040.

Revenue officers will visit every county in the United States to assist taxpayers in making out their returns. The date of their arrival and the location of their offices will be announced by the press or may be ascertained upon inquiry at the offices of collectors. This advisory service is without cost to taxpayers.

LEARNING FOREIGN LANGUAGES

A woman from Texas with two weeks to spend in the National Capital devoted several hours daily to studying the French language. It was one of the objects of her visit to Washington, and she knew that she could drop into the Berlitz School of Languages and brush up on her self-instruction course, and then after returning home reap further benefits from the short period of personal contact she had obtained from this world-wide school. Mr. M. D. Berlitz founded the Washington institution and he is now back from war-swept Europe, where he has spent several years in re-establishing his schools that were in many cases numbered among the "casualties of war." Mr. Berlitz returns to America to find that there is an overwhelmingly demand among educators for the study of the foreign languages. A Washington citizens' association has recommended that Spanish be taught exclusively in public schools, giving as its reason the belief that Spanish should be mastered by the rising generation because it is growing into favor as a commercial language. French, German and Italian are referred to by this same association as languages that belong more to "social affairs." This viewpoint will likely be disputed by thousands of overseas men, who believe that their "parlez vous" need to be buttressed by a fuller knowledge of the French language, or perhaps Italian—and maybe German. So it is interesting to know that a great many of these boys and men are studying their Berlitz textbooks at home, and some day they all expect to go, like the woman from Texas, to the big city where they can get into more intimate contact with teachers of their selected foreign language.

URGES WOMEN ON COUNTY HEALTH BOARDS

Appointment of a woman on County Health Boards is urged upon Fiscal Courts by the State Board of Health, according to Dr. J. N. McCormick, Secretary of the Bureau. Appointment of women to the board, Dr. McCormick said, is due them because of their untiring efforts in health work, especially in the last decade and also in view of their now having equal suffrage rights.

At present there are four members on each county health board, three physicians being appointed by the State Board, while the fourth generally is the county judge, or another county official. The Fiscal Court, under the law would appoint the fifth member, who the State health organization hopes will be a woman. Dr. McCormick explained that the woman as well as the men members of each board, should be well-known in the county and have the confidence of the people in their respective sections.
